ELF THE MUSICAL

Book by Thomas Meehan, Bob Martin • Music by Matthew Sklar

Lyrics by Chad Beguelin • Based on the New Line Cinema film by David Berenbaum

November 9 - December 23 | Marian Theatre

Buddy is the biggest Elf the North Pole has ever seen. That's because Buddy the Elf is actually Buddy the human. When his enormous size and poor toy-making skills cause him to face the truth, Buddy embarks on a journey to New York City to find his real father and discover his true identity. Shocked to find his that his father is on the naughty list (gasp!) and his half-brother doesn't believe in much of anything (what!?!), Buddy's mission becomes clear: win over his new family and help New York, and all of us, remember the true meaning of Christmas.

HENRY V

By William Shakespeare

February 15 - March 3 | Severson Theatre

Prince Hal, is now King Henry V. Attempting to leave behind his rowdy and unpredictable past, Henry lays claim to certain parts of France through familial roots and ancient land laws. When his claim, and new reign are insulted by the Dauphin of France, Henry begins a war that whisks us from England to France in Shakespeare's most famous "war play." What will it take for this charismatic new King to forge an unruly and apprehensive group of individuals into an irrepressible and unified band of brothers and sisters that might win the day, or at least survive it?

WOLF AT THE DOOR

By Marisela Treviño Orta

February 29 - March 17 | Marian Theatre

After Isadora and Septimo suffer an unthinkable loss an unexpected visitor changes the course of their life. When the brutal Septimo forces the very pregnant stranger, Yolot, to stay against her will, Isadora and Yolot start making a plan of their own. And as a pack of wolves closes in on the hacienda, Isadora must decide what price she'll pay for her own freedom. Inspired by Latino folklore and mythology, Wolf at the Door is a thrilling part of a cycle of gothic fairy tales by Marisela Treviño Orta (The River Bride) that asks, who is the real wolf at your door?

June 13 - July 7 | Solvang Festival Theater

Mushnik's flower shop on Skid Row is about to go under, until Seymour, a tragically shy assistant, stumbles upon a new breed of plant with an unusual appetite – for blood. The plant, whose magical and musical powers are out of this world, promises Seymour fame, fortune, and the love of his co-worker Audrey in exchange for doing the unthinkable. But when Seymour discovers the real origins and intent of the plant, a terrible showdown of ridiculous proportions takes place full of 1960s R&B, Rock, and Doo-Wop. Little Shop of Horrors is a hilarious musical hit and sci-fi homage to B-movies, that devoured the hearts of theatre goers for over 30 years.

THE PLAY THAT GOES WRONG

By Henry Lewis, Jonathan Sayer & Henry Shields

July 27 - 30 | Marian Theatre

July 12 - 28 | Solvang Festival Theater

Welcome to opening night of the Comley University Drama Society's newest production, The Murder at Haversham Manor, where things are quickly going from bad to disastrous. This 1920s whodunit has everything you never wanted in a show—an unconscious leading lady, a corpse that can't play dead, and actors who trip over everything (including their lines). Nevertheless, the accident-prone thespians battle against all odds to make it through to their final curtain call, with hilarious consequences! Part Monty Python, part Sherlock Holmes, The Play That Goes Wrong is an Olivier Award-winning smash hit farce and global phenomenon that's guaranteed to leave you aching with laughter!

CABARET

Book by Joe Masteroff • Based on the play by John Van Druten

and stories by Christopher Isherwood

Music by John Kander • Lyrics by Fred Ebb

JULY 18 - 27 | Marian Theatre

AUGUST 2 - 25 | Solvang Festival Theater

Willkommen. Bienvenue. Welcome. The Master of Ceremonies welcomes you to the Kit Kat Club, and promises that "in here, life is beautiful." Even in Berlin as the 1920's draw to a close and as Germany slowly yields to the emerging Third Reich, you can forget your troubles at the Cabaret. Cliff, a young American writer newly arrived in Berlin hopes to do just that, when he is immediately taken with English singer Sally Bowles. Filled with numbers including "Money," "Cabaret," "Don't Tell Mama," and "Two Ladies," Cabaret is widely acknowledged as a rare musical masterpiece, and resonates with fresh urgency in our contemporary world.

THE AGITATORS

By Matt Smart

AUGUST 22 - 25 | Marian Theatre

AUGUST 29 - SEPTEMBER 8 | Solvang Festival Theater

Young abolitionists, Frederick Douglass and Susan B. Anthony, are full of dreams and seemingly common purpose when they meet in Rochester, NY in the 1840s and form an unexpected friendship. However, as they grow to become great agents of change, their movements collide, and their alliance is severely tested. From auspicious beginnings in Rochester, through a civil war, to the highest halls of government, The Agitators is the true story of the turbulent and enduring forty-five year friendship between two of America's greatest agitators. Matt Smart's historical play of rebellion and revolution, personal passion and sacrifice, reverberates powerfully in our America of today.
